Hi Kathy and Carter. Just checking in on this. Have you heard back from Water? Our deadline from Trina is tomorrow, right? Thanks.

Carter –

Thanks for providing this background and update to get the ball rolling. I inserted a few minor edits in redline/strikeout.

Elizabeth,

Below is my rough draft of the update for Jared on the Rosemont project, including the latest information from today's call. Let's plan to polish it up on Monday and provide it for supervisor review by the end of the day if possible. Trina indicated that she would like to be able to give it to Jared by mid-morning on Wednesday, so this schedule will offer plenty of review time, if needed.

CCing managers just as an FYI.

Hope you have a great weekend.

-Carter
